AN UNKNOWN TURNING-POINT

In 1832 Dr. Wood was surgeon of a 12-gun schooner, cruising in the gulf. A man-of-war of the existing Mexican Government committed an act of piracy upon a United States merchantman. The schooner captured the offender off Tampico, in view of consorts. But the Captain of the Port of Tampico was a Baltimorean, a townsman of Dr. Wood, and was aboard his ship at the time. He was by a ruse de guerre decoyed aboard the schooner, and held there until the desired capture was completed. From that time till he met him in the City of Mexico, fourteen years later Dr. Wood had not heard of his Tampico townsman. But, while on this perilous journey, this friend came up to the Doctor in a hotel in the City of Mexico. They looked at each other; the recognition was instant and mutual. The Captain said, gravely:

"You took me prisoner once, and I have you."

The Doctor was startled, but, affecting indifference, made some light reply. The Captain took him to his own room and told him he was disgusted with the Mexican Government, and would never take part against his own country. The streets of Mexico were rife with war news. Resaca de la Palma and Palo Alto had been fought, and Dr. Wood heard, with bitterness, the newsboys calling out exaggerated accounts of "Overwhelming defeat of the North Americans." But his Tampico Captain was an intimate friend of Torel, the Mexican War Minister, and he told Dr. Wood these accounts were all false, published to deceive the people. The flower of the Mexican army had been annihilated by Dr. Wood's own life-long friend, Zachary Taylor. Surgeon Wood, through this channel, every night learned the discussions of the Mexican Cabinet, and received, as it were, from the Minister of War himself the latest secrets of the campaign and of the national policy. All this information, together with his own observations, Dr. Wood promptly transmitted to Sloat, through the Mexican mails, under neutral cover. On the receipt of this, which at the time was characterized as "vital" and "all-important" information, Sloat himself put to sea, and joined the Cyane and Levant at Monterey, where on the 7th of July, he raised the Stars and Stripes and formally took possession of California. Admiral Seymour arrived one day later, and was terribly chagrined to find that he had been outwitted, that American patriotism had been superior to his carefully laid plans, and that California was lost to Great Britain forever.—Californian for December.

Nothing is more important for a young man than to stand well with his employer, and there is no better rule than this, to do every task with a thoroughness and faithfulness which makes criticism impossible and excites admiration. A merchant never parts with a young man who has made himself absolutely necessary to the firm, and when the firm goes to pieces through stress of circumstances such a youth can always find a new situation. There are, however, too many young men who resemble the one described below. He was asked, when he sought work, if he had a recommendation from his last employer. He replied, with an air of hesitation, that he had. When required to produce it he said that it was only a verbal recommendation, and when questioned more closely admitted that it was not of much practical value, for it was a recommendation to leave just as soon as he could get out of the store.

And the peddler went on to say—"Yes, madam. This lightning-conductor, placed under your son's clothing from head to heels, will protect him while he is fishing on rainy days; but, madam, if for the sake of saving a paltry $5, you decline to try it, and he is struck by the deadly fluid, you will lament too late that you spared the rod and spoiled the child."

It is estimated that there are three million unmarried women in the country. It will be seen that if all the men should marry there would be a surplus of a million old maids from which to draw for second wives. This is a great country for man.

Prof. Reed, of London, has figured out the exact age of the world, which he sets at 600,000,000 years; but as he neglects to give the day of the month at which it started, there is very little encouragement to get up a centennial celebration.

A man will wait to get shaved in a barber shop for an hour with perfect tranquility; but the same man will come home to dinner, and if he finds the meal five or ten minutes late, he will tear around like a Bashan bull.

A prominent citizen, when asked if he was going to decorate, replied, "Yes; when the procession passes I'll raise the window, stick out my red head, show the whites of my eyes and look blue."

The Bernhardt habitually carries a walking stick. You can tell the difference between the two of them by the fact that the latter generally goes without a hat.

Of all the actions of a man's life his marriage does least concern other people, yet of all the actions of our lives it is most meddled with by other people.

HE GOT OUT OF IT.—A colored preacher in Florida thus held forth:

"My brudering, de Isrealites went ober de Red Sea on ice. Dey got ober all right, and dats de reason why Moses sung ob praise. In de morning, when de sun was up hot, Pharaoh and de 'Gyptians com wid deir great lumberin' chariots ob iron. Dey broke frew de ice, and dey all went down to de bottom ob de sea. And—"

"Stop dere!" exclaimed a hearer. "I want to ax a question. I've read, Geography, and History, and Egypt's a hot country. It's under the tropics. It's near de 'quater, and dere ain't no ice dar. How could dey go ober on de ice, and dere ain't no ice dar?"

To which the preacher responded:

"I'm glad you axed dat question; now I can 'splain. Dat comes of readin' Geography and History instead ob de Bible. My Bruddering, when de chilen ob Israel go ober de Red Sea, dat was a great while ago; before dar was any Geography, before dar was any History, before dar was any Tropics, before dar was any 'Quater. Dat's de reason dar was ice, my brudring."

"Have a blotting pad, sir?" asked a peripatetic dealer, reaching out one of those absorbents.

"How do you fasten the thing on?" inquired Jones, after turning the thing over and over.

"Fasten it on?" exclaimed the peddler. "What do you mean?"

"What do I mean?" cried Jones, looking up. "Young man, I've had experience in this pad business. I've bought them for the head, stomach and liver, and this is the first one I ever saw with no tackle on it. No, I don't want it. Good day."

The man saw it was of no use to argue with Jones.—Boston Transcript.

Buying in large quantities is as often a waste as an economical measure. In providing for a small family, perishable articles should be bought in moderate quantities. The loss by waste and decay would exceed the grocer's profits. Besides, a variety of food is really a necessity to preserve health, and a large supply at hand is a constant temptation to a sameness in bills of fare. When the family is large and the house provided with means for keeping supplies without waste, there is economy in wholesale purchases.

UTTERLY USELESS.—"It's no use talking," she yelled, "A man's a man the world over. You could go out and parade yourself all over town half the night, with a kerosene lamp on your shoulder, while I was sttting here stark alone, and now if I ask you to get a hod of coal or a pail of water you begin to warble how tired you are, Oh, you"—and she grabbed the pail and gave the door a slam behind her, and he remarked, "Well, it's no use; you can't please a woman anyhow."

"I would rather vote for a long-eared donkey than for you," said an independent voter to a Galveston candidate. "Oh, come now! You ought not to allow yourself to be so influenced by family ties," responded the candidate. The voter has been puzzling his head ever since to find out why the crowd laughed.—Galveston News.

The hardest thing in the world is to swallow a big word instead of allowing it to explode when you become suddenly angry. At such times, for some reason or other, expressions are apt to creep up to the lips and jump out into the fresh air which would not bear repetition in the bosom of your family, or in a prayer meeting.

A Newark paper is responsible for this: "Dearest," he murmured ecstatically, as he folded her in his manly arms for the first time, "let me sample the nectar of your lips." "Take a whole schooner of it," she faintly whispered, "it's on tap."

A guest at a fashionable hotel took his seat at the dinner table, but no one appearing to wait upon him he remarked, "Have you any waiters in this hotel?" "Yes," responded a wag on the opposite side of the table; "the boarders are the waiters."

What is the difference between a lady fondling her lap-dog, and an Irish girl caressing her sweetheart?—The one pats her pet, and the other pets her Pat.

In concluding an article on the last corn crop, an Alabama editor remarked: "We have on exhibition in our sanctum a magnificent pair of ears."

Wisdom is better than riches. Wisdom guards thee, but thou must guard thy riches. Riches diminish in the using; but wisdom increases in the use of it.

The Cincinnati papers have been telling their readers that a little silver pig is the latest trinket for watch chains in Paris.

Riches take wings, and the man who bought on a mortgage says he has seen a house-fly.

What is needed in the nursery?—More mother and less nurse.

A pretty girl may talk slang, but she never says to her beau, "None of your lips!"

The CHRONICLE Office is on the second floor of "Goodson's Building," east side of Main street, between Standard Avenue and Green street, Bodie.

SAN FRANCISCO AGENCY.—L. P. Fisher, 21 Merchants' Exchange, is our Agent, and is authorized to contract for advertising, receive subscriptions and make collections on our account.

Charles A. Hill, a lawyer and once Superintendent of Schools of Sacramento, has been sent to the St. Louis jail for one year for having bogus coin in his possession. Hill was in President Buchanan's law office, and was a strong Democrat; and when Superintendent in Sacramento showed his partisan feelings by demoralizing the High School of that city and impairing its usefulness by causing the removal of its founder and teacher, Mr. Howe—the most thorough teacher Sacramento had—merely because he was a "Black Republican."

The State Department has advices from Berlin, that the cases of American naturalized citizens, who have been arrested in Alsace and Lorraine on charges of owing military service to the German Government, have been decided in accordance with the claim of our Government. Those arrested have been released, and fines remitted. It will be gratifying to our German citizens to know that they can visit the old country without the fear of molestation.

The San Luis Obispo Mirror says: J. P. Andrews informs us that he has taken ten tons of grapes per acre from his vineyard this season, which he has sold at $30 per ton, or an average of $300 per acre from his vineyard, and this with but little cultivation and care, he having his hands too full of business to give his vineyard the cultivation and care needed.

The Sacramento Pioneer Association met on Saturday last, and adopted a resolution inviting a committee of three and the President from each of the California Societies, State or Territorial, to meet in that city on the second Tuesday in January, to take steps to erect a monument to General Sutter.

The Sonora Union-Democrat says: "J. L. Coles, who recently returned to Tuolumne, concluded to mine at Soulsbyville. He took his family and bought a small house of a miner for a hundred dollars. It required repairs, and on Wednesday, on taking up the floor, $1,800 in retorted gold was found under it."

The Illinois Democrats will meet at Springfield January 8th, to decide whether to keep up the party organization in Illinois. Many favor a disbanding, and many others are leaving the party who have voted with it from its incipiency.

Preliminary steps have been taken in Chicago for the formation of the Central Land League, its purpose being to assist in the defense of Parnell and his confreres in Ireland and to encourage the land agitation in that country.

Governor Perkins has ordered a special election to be held in Solano county on Saturday next for Assemblyman, the November election having resulted in a tie between Leach and Goodyear.

The Mexican Congress has approved of the policy of the Government in encouraging the development of the resources of the country.

The President has issued a proclamation suspending and removing all discriminating duties on Chinese shipping and imports at United States ports.

In Napa county seven acres of four-year old vines yielded 58 tons of grapes; 1¼ acres, 22 tons; six-year old vines gave 15 tons per acre.

Some of the women of California are successful apiarists, floriculturists, raisin-makers, growers of small fruits, and managers of small orchards and poultry farms.

The Chinamen at work placer mining above Dayton recently sold at the Carson Mint gold dust to the value of $8,000.

According to the Epitaph, after the sale of some 2,000 lots in Tombstone, A. T., only $20 can be found in the town treasury.

Congressman E. W. Farr, of New Hampshire, died on Tuesday, aged 40. He was a Republican.

The remaining four bodies of the twenty men who perished in the Hudson river tunnel have been recovered.

There has been a flour famine in Candelaria, but the whisky held out, so the men were not troubled much.

It has been arranged in Paris to withdraw 12,500,000 francs from the Bank of France for America.

The hoisting works of the Wales Consolidated at Eureka, Nev., were burned on Saturday last.

By the New Orleans fast train New York papers are now delivered in Washington at 9 A. M.

Navigation of the Penobscot river, Maine, is closed, the earliest since 1842.

On Monday nine ocean steamers were overdue at New York.

Some more indictments in the Morey matter are promised.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE.

On Monday last the Secretary of State opened and canvassed the returns of the Presidential election in this State. The canvass was witnessed by G. W. Maslin and Wm. Broderick, Democrats, and W. W. Morrow and J. Steppacher, Republicans. The result of the canvass gave Del Valle, the highest Democratic Elector, 80,442 votes; Edgerton, the highest Republican, 80,348; Clark, highest Greenbacker, 3,394; Winchester, Prohibitionist, 61; Anti-Masonic, 6; Neal Dow, 830, and scattering, 70. The returns from Lassen, Mendocino and Siskiyou counties were irregular, and had Secretary Burns felt disposed to adhere to the very letter of the law the returns from those counties would have been thrown out and certificates of election given to the Garfield Electors, but his honest Republican heart would not allow him to adopt Democratic tactics and take undue advantage, so he telegraphed to the County Clerks—who are all Democrats, we believe, to complete their returns. In this matter our Republican Secretary of State has set an example of honest dealing to the Democratic Party that those in authority belonging to that organization should hereafter pattern after.

The Chicago Tribune furnishes the following statement taken from the official returns from every State in the Union on the late Presidential election: Garfield, 4,439,415; Hancock, 4,436,014; Weaver, 305,629; Dow, 9,644; scattering, 1,793; Total, 9,192,595. Garfield's plurality, 3,401.

The California Southern railroad has advertised for proposals up to December 10, for grading the first sixteen miles from the Bay of San Diego. A city ordinance granting the right of way through the city has been passed.

Sixty thousand immigrants arrived at the leading ports of the United States during October, and despite the Irish troubles, nearly a thousand more English than Irish came, and three times as many Germans as Irish.

The Union Pacific Railroad earnings for the first twenty-three days in November show an increase of $120,000.

THE UNION.

BRIDGEPORT, DECEMBER 4, 1880.

The Union office is in Towle's Building, Bridgeport.

For Printing.—Job printing of the finest description will be furnished at this office at Sacramento prices.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Died.—Henry Robbins, who was shot on election day by Hawkins, died in the county Hospital at Bodie about 7 o'clock on last Saturday evening. His remains were taken to Kelly & Carder's, where they were placed in a fine rosewood casket. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon and was well attended, a number of his Bridgeport friends having gone up to Bodie to pay the last tribute of respect. The deceased was about 24 years of age, and a native of Vermont, where he left a mother and sister to mourn the loss of one whom they soon hoped to clasp in their arms at the old homestead, the deceased having made arrangements to return home soon after the election.

Snow Storm.—The first heavy storm of the season started in about dusk on Wednesday evening, when it commenced snowing, continuing till about 7 o'clock last evening. The snowfall has not been heavy, some eighteen inches having been deposited, but a heavy gale on Thursday drifted it so that travel has been sadly interfered with, and several Bodieites have been snowbound here and enjoying the freedom of the city.

Be Alive.—Ohristmas is fast approaching and our citizens should be alive to its proper observance in Bridgeport. Perhaps many may visit Bodie on that day, but what is to be done for the entertainment of the members of the "Can't-get-away Club?"

On Monday.—If fair weather favors, the road to Bodie will probably be in good sleighing condition. The travelor will be truly thankful that the dust on this road has been effectually laid.

Went Through.—Notwithstanding the late heavy storm the mail from here went through to Bodie by pony on time, but it was not a very agreeable trip for the mail carrier.

No Mail.—The Carson stage made Bodie late yesterday afternoon, but brought no Eastern or San Francisco mail, the cars not arriving in Carson until about 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Sleighing.—Fix up your sleighs and furnish up your bells for the sleighing arrival. The sleighing of the dear is now in order.

Dull.—The storm has knocked business into a snow-drift, but a few days of clear weather will bring everything out right.

Californian.—The Californian has taken its place at the front as one of the best monthly publications in the country. Its writers are of the best in the State, as the December number will testify. The current number contains: Savonarola; A Brief Visit to Calcutta; A Dead Friend; Their Great Scheme; Moreau in Books and in the Woods; Mission San Gabriel; In the Court-room with Rufus Choate; A Strange Confession; The Voyage of Juan De Fuca a Fraud; An Unknown Turning-point in the Destiny of the Republic; Not a Success; The Ancient Glaciers of the Sierras; "Utopia;" An Evening with Winton Indians; Questions, etc., etc. An evening cannot be more profitably employed than in reading the Californian, which is furnished to subscribers at the popular price of $4 per year. Publication office, 203 Sansome street, San Francisco.

Christmas Presents.—In about three weeks Christmas will be at our doors, and many are thinking of the presents they desire to make. Those wishing to make an acceptable and tasty gift can find the very article wanted, at L. Hollander's, the leading jeweler of Bodie, who has a splendid assortment of rich jewelry of the newest styles, fine watches, silver and plated ware of the most modern patterns, etc.

Scientific American.—The advertisement of the New York Scientific American, the great scientific paper of America, will be found in another column. It is one of the most valuable publications in this country. Mechanics, engineers, and all engaged in business of a mechanical nature, should subscribe for this invaluable work.

Harper's Publications.—We call attention to the advertisements of the monthly and weekly publications of Harper & Bros. of New York. These publications are too well known to require words of praise from us. Now is the time to subscribe, and commence with the New Year.

Dentistry.—Dr. Preshaw, who has entered upon his fourth year residence in Bodie, and can be found at his new rooms, Standard Building, next door to the telegraph office, does everything in the line of dentistry skillfully and promptly. We commend him to the public.

New Stock.—Ben Eggleston, the well known Bodie merchant, has bought Ritchie's large stock, and now has a fine assorted stock. Ben is a good man to trade with, and does justice to all.

The population of Nevada is within one or two hundred of 60,000. Storey county has between 16,000 and 17,000—an increase of 4,500.

BODIE ITEMS.

Closing Exercises.—We acknowledge the receipt of tickets to the closing exercises of the Bodie Public School, Miss Charlotte M. Pitcher, principal, to take place at Miners' Union Hall on Monday evening next. There will be a rehearsal at the Hall on Monday morning. The entertainment will be interesting, and well worth the low price of tickets—only fifty cents—the proceeds to be applied to the purchase of an organ for the school. It should be well attended and prove a financial success.

Bullion Shipments.—We are indebted to Major Atlee, of Wells, Fargo & Co., for the following statement of the bullion shipments during November:

Bodie Con	$ 70,402 25
Standard Con	134,141 28
Noondays	40,225 90
Sundries	6,500 95
Total	$251,270 78

Blown Down.—During the heavy wind yesterday afternoon the Goodshaw hoisting works were blown down, not having been fully inclosed. The damage falls on the contractor.

Vacation.—The Bodie school was closed yesterday for a vacation of four weeks—until after the Holidays. The children can now coast to a surfeit.

Fire.—The carpenter shop of Henry Meyers, on upper Main street, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening. Loss about $500.

New Superintendent.—Sam Pitcher has been appointed Superintendent of the Mc Clinton mine.

There is a largely increased demand for steel rails at Pittsburg and other rail manufacturing centers. One firm at Pittsburg has received orders for 80,000 tons of steel rails. Many roads are substituting steel rails for iron rails, while several Western roads are extending their lines, which accounts for the boom.

James Stephenson, in charge of the geological survey of New Mexico, claims to have discovered another remarkable prehistoric city. It extends for miles, the houses being built in the face of a cliff along a canyon, forty miles from Santa Fe.

The Sweepstakes Flow Company has decided to remove its works from San Leandro to Benicia.

Great difficulty is experienced in securing a jury in the Schroeder case in Oakland.

Judge E. D. Taylor has been elected to Congress to fill Garfield's place.

De Lesseps says that everything is ready to commence work on the Panama canal.
